What It Is, and How Corrected.

Asigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JONES, N. C. to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:00; 2 to 6. 302 1/2 S. Elm St.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE

The Annual Commencement Began Last Night.

ART DISPLAY MOST EXCELLENT.

The Annual Sermon This Morning by Dr. J. J. Tigert, of Nashville, Tenn.

The annual commencement exercises of Greensboro Female College began last night with the art exhibit. At eight o'clock the elegant parlors of the college were thrown open to the stream of eager visitors who were already arriving. In a very short time the rooms were filled where the excellent work of the art students was exhibited. The exhibition was most elaborate and excellent, and would have easily captivated the discriminating eye of a Parisian. The instruction which the young ladies have received in the beautiful art reflects use some things which did not appear to be spiritual but the use of which were fully justified before the end of the sermon. The preacher spoke of the infinite and eternal void—darkness, that was in the beginning. He simplified darkness by saying it was an absence of light, as cold is the absence of heat and silence the absence of sound. These preliminaries were useful in understanding the great lesson embodied in the sermon. Life is a reality. Death is a mere personification of the absence of life. Dr. Tigert here referred to the conflict between science and religion and how the lessons of the Holy Word had united the two.

Branching out from these thoughts a great and grand lesson was unfolded and during the hour occupied by the sermon the large and cultured audience grew not weary. After the close prayer was offered by Rev. W. C. Willson, pastor of Burkhead church, Winston, and Rev. W. L. Grissom announced hymn No. 457. After the hymn was sung President Peacock made the announcements for the further commencement exercises. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the meet-

CAPTAIN TILLEY WAS SLAIN

By The Insurgents While Exhibiting a Flag of Truce.

FILIPINOS ARE DEMORALIZED

And Suffer Greatly Owing to a Scarcity of Food—General Lawton's Movements.

Manila, May 30—General Smith's expedition has found the body of Captain Tilley. He was slain by the insurgents while displaying a flag of truce on the river at Escalante near where he was last seen. His head was badly mutilated. His body was brought to Iloilo and buried today. Aguinaldo is apparently unable to reorganize his forces in Cavite province under the direction of Gen. Tomas who, it is said, recently offered to surrender to the American forces if promised pardon. The Filipinos under

THE FIRE LAST NIGHT.

Mendenhall's Livery Stable and Six Horses Burned.

Between 1 and 2 o'clock last night fire broke out in the stables in which most of the public hacks of the city have their headquarters and in less than half an hour after its discovery the whole building was wrapped in flames. A driver discovered the fire on his return from a trip at 1:30 o'clock and after arousing some negroes who were asleep in the loft of the burning structure, gave the alarm. The firemen responded immediately, but the nearest water plug, to which they connected the hose, was broken and having to disconnect and use another, they were unable to do any effective work until the building was almost gutted.

Eleven horses were in the stables and while the firemen were preparing for work, the aroused negroes, some of whom were drivers, were trying to save the horses, carriages and other property which were in the building. They succeeded in freeing only five horses and saving one or two carriages before it became too hot to work.

TODAY IS A LEGAL HOLIDAY.

Memorial Day Being Celebrated at Washington.

ALL THE CONFEDERATE GRAVES

In the North Have Been Ordered by the Nation's War Department to Be Decorated.

Special to the Telegram.
Washington, D. C., May 30—Memorial day is being celebrated at the national capital as a legal holiday. All of the executive departments, and the office of the city government, public schools, and national banks are closed. Most of the downtown merchants will close their places of business for the entire day, and those who remain open during the forenoon will close at noon.

As is the usual custom in Washington Decoration day was spent by the vast majority of the citizens out of town, as a day of recreation in the country. Several excursions were given to points down the Potomac River, and in the mountains. Memorial services will be held this afternoon at Arlington, Congressional Cemetery, and other national cemeteries. The graves of the gallant dead will be decorated with flowers and small flags. The principal celebration will take place at the National Cemetery at Arlington, the former home of General Lee. There will be prominent speakers in attendance at the memorial exercises, who will deliver addresses.

This year a new feature will be added to the celebration of Memorial day. The war department has given orders for the decoration of the unknown Confederate graves throughout the north, the same as the graves of the Union veterans, and this will be done. Memorial services will also be celebrated at the National Cemetery at Alexandria, Virginia, and large numbers of people are expected to go down from this city.

A large number of Washington people also left this morning for Fredericksburg, Virginia, and for Gettysburg where Memorial day will be suitably observed. A friend of General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, who was in Washington the other day stated that in his opinion there is not the slightest probability that the general will reconsider his declination of the generous offer of the people of the city of Columbia, to rebuild a home for him. The general has been unfortunate, said the gentleman, but he has no idea of accepting such an act of charity as proposed by his neighbors and friends, among whom he has lived so long.

There seems to be some hitch in the subscriptions for the proposed home to Admiral Dewey, which was started some time ago. It is said that there is some chance that the admiral may refuse to accept the gift of a home, and this uncertainty has led a number of persons who would otherwise probably subscribe for the home to withhold their subscriptions. The amount of money thus far received by the committee appointed for the purpose, for the home is away below the expectations of the promoters of the scheme. The amount received daily has been steadily falling off. Unless the money comes in more rapidly than it has been doing the past week, there is some chance that proposed scheme may be altogether abandoned.

At the navy department it was stated the other day that Admiral Dewey will probably not return to the United States until late in September. He will remain about two weeks at Hong Kong, and enroute homeward will touch at several ports along the Mediterranean sea. Until his arrival at New York probably nothing will be known about his acceptance of the proposed home in this city.

The Misses Nellie and Bessie Merrimon, daughters of Mr. Branch H. Merrimon and grand-daughters of the late ex-Governor and ex-Senator A. S. Merrimon, of Greensboro, North Carolina, have been visiting in Washington during the peace jubilee and will remain for several days. While in the city they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, of M. street, northwest. Miss Sallie Perry, of Macon, North Carolina, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James L. Harper, No. 12, I street, northeast. She will be here for several days.

the greatest credit upon Greensboro Female College. A gentleman was present who has been an extensive traveler over the whole country, and who is quite a critic, remarked that the exhibit was splendid, and such was the verdict of all who saw and examined the pictures.

One of the most meritorious productions—indeed being pronounced by many as the masterpiece of the collection—was the most "life-like" painting of the slices of watermelon. The picture was numbered 37, and was from the brush of Miss Bessie Dunlap. The painting was so natural-looking that one could hardly resist the temptation to reach up and pluck from the wall a piece of the luscious fruit. Another work most highly commended was No. 21, "The Deserted Nest," by Miss Donna Coble. And there were others, many others, exceptionally fine, of which a master of the "dye-pots" could not afford to feel ashamed.

Miss Katherine Heiskell is the talented instructor to whom the young lady students are indebted for their most excellent training. The following students graduate in art, being granted certificates: Miss Donna Coble and Miss Caldwell Hoyle.

At 9:30, according to program, the cruel bell summoned the young ladies away who had welcomed the guests, and the crowd began taking its reluctant departure from the beautiful display, and the first night of the fifty-second annual commencement exercises of Greensboro Female College was over.

THE SERMON TODAY.

The annual sermon was preached today by Rev. Dr. John J. Tigert, book editor of the M. E. Publishing House, of Nashville, Tenn. The services began at eleven o'clock by singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," followed by prayer by Dr. Tigert. Hymn No. 698 was announced by Rev. P. J. Carraway, and after its singing scripture lessons were read by Rev. T. E. Waggs, pastor of Centenary church and by Dr. Tigert. Hymn No. 701 was read by Rev. Dr. H. Wood, presiding elder of Greensboro district.

President Peacock then announced the preacher, who read for his text the 6th verse of the 4th Chapter II Corinthians: "For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." Any man who writes other than an accurate stenographic hand would be foolish to attempt an exhaustive report of the very able discourse. We will notice a few thoughts. Looking at the subject through the eyes of the apostle it was necessary to ing of the alumnae association in the chapel, tea, and at 8:30 p. m. an address before the alumnae by Miss M. E. Carter, of Chester, Va. The graduating exercises will take place tomorrow morning, beginning at eleven o'clock, in the college chapel.

Ed Armstrong, who has had charge of George Gould's business here for some time, left last night for New York to remain until fall.

Messrs. F. Ingold and J. R. Ferree, of Randleman, passed through last night enroute to Greensboro.

As the flames came nearer to the six remaining horses their frantic neighs and kicks, in their efforts to get out, were pitiful indeed. Finally the halter of one burned in two, and with the flesh burned off his sides, he dashed from the building and up the street. The remaining five succumbed one by one. It was seen this morning that the last horse to escape could not live and a bullet ended its suffering.

The building, which was situated at the rear of Shoffner's bar, on South Elm street, was the property of Taylor & Jones. It was insured for $100. They estimate their loss at about $300.

The loss falls more heavily on Aaron Mendenhall, one of the most progressive colored men in the city. His loss is: 6 horses, 2 carriages, the kindergarten wagon, park wagon and a hearse, besides several sets of harness, a good amount of feed and other small articles. He carried insurance as follows: $300 on horses, $300 on carriages, $50 on harness and $50 on feed.

The origin of the fire is not known. Several little negro bootblacks and most of the hack drivers slept in the loft of the building at night though it seems that only one or two were there last night and these were asleep when the fire was first seen. Misplaced matches was most probably the cause.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Young Man Flurried Near Kinston By an Unknown Person.

Kinston, May 29.—Mr. J. H. Twedy, a married white man, aged about twenty-five, on returning from Kinston to the logging camps of the Gray Lumber Company, about twelve miles from Kinston, where he was employed, was shot Saturday night about 11 o'clock, from ambush by an unknown assassin, and died in about three hours, before a physician could be obtained. He was shot with buckshot from a gun. Before Mr. Twedy died he stated that Windal Taylor killed him; that as the moon was shining bright he could tell the man. The only motive that the act could be attributed to was that there seemed to have been some trouble between them concerning a woman. Henry Wolfe, colored, aged about seventeen, was out hunting Saturday afternoon, and while getting over a fence his gun was accidentally discharged, the load taking effect in his forehead, from which wound he died in a short while.—Special to Raleigh Post.

She now eats and sleeps well, gaining in flesh, and her color, which had got to be yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I tell her that Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."—J. Dr. F. G. Cheek, eye specialist, will be in Greensboro at the Benbow House, Thursday, June 1st, 1899. The Dr. is a graduate of one of the largest colleges in the United States. He submits a few letters of testimony, received from some of the Twin-Cities' best citizens. Read them and be benefited accordingly. If you are not acquainted with any of the names below given call on the Dr. and he will show you a large list.

Dr. F. G. Cheek, City.

Dear Sir:—Since having my eyes treated by you some time ago, I have enjoyed perfect relief, comfort and ease. Your treatment rendered an unimpaired vision to the eyes rendered by other refracting oculists. Your treatment to my son's eyes is also satisfactory in every respect.

Very respectfully, Philip Hanes.

It gives me pleasure to say that Dr. Fred G. Cheek, after an examination, fitted a special pair of glasses to my eyes, which are satisfactory in every respect. I commend him to those wishing work in his line.

Respectfully, W. H. Brown.

Dr. F. G. Cheek, City.

Dear Sir:—The glasses which you adjusted to my eyes are satisfactory in every respect. I am very grateful for the service you have rendered me.

I am very respectfully, Mrs. S. E. Allen.

Winston, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I have pleasure in informing you that the glasses which you made to correct my defective vision are satisfactory. I can now read and do all my work with perfect ease and comfort. I have tried other ophthalmologists, but all except you were unsuccessful.

Yours truly, R. E. Dalton; Dalton, Farrow & Co.

Winston, N. C.

Dr. F. G. Cheek, City.

Dear Sir:—Having been troubled with frequent headaches, I had you to examine my eyes and find out what was the matter. You have found out what was the matter, and you have cured me. I am now as well as ever and I feel much pleasure in recommending you to all my friends.

Respectfully, W. H. Clark.

END OF A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The 47th Annual Commencement at Oak Ridge Institute.

One of the most successful years in the history of Oak Ridge Institute closed last week with exercises of a very interesting nature, attended by large numbers of the state's best men and women. Music of a high order was furnished by the Student Cornet Band and student orchestra.

Both the sermon by Rev. L. Johnson, of Greensboro, on Sunday, and the address by Victor Bryant, Esq., of Durham, on commencement day, were eminently appropriate and able. The orations by members of the graduating class, and by representatives of the literary societies were of a high order of excellence. The Elisha K. Gravelly medals were won by Luther Markham, Durham, Philomathean Society, and R. L. Carlton, of Wilkes county, Athenian Society.

In the classical course of study, diplomas were awarded to Fred W. Bynum, Pittsboro (with honor); Drewry Lanier, Donnell, Oak Ridge; J. L. Gaine, Cumberland Co., (with honor); Wm. H. Griffin, Jr., Rocky Mt., (with highest honor); Earle P. Holt, Oak Ridge; Arthur Hooks, Fremont, N. C.; Oscar Hooks, Fremont; Thos. Felce, Warsaw, Thor. P. Whisman, Shelby, (with high honor); Martin B. Wilson, Sampson Co., (with honor). In the scientific course, Rea Lee, Mecklenburg county.

In the commercial course, thirty-two diplomas were granted; in the shorthand course, fifteen; in telegraphy course, four. This makes a grand total for the year of sixty-two.

The enrollment for the year is two hundred and seventy-three, representing seven states, and every part of North Carolina. Siberia has sent one, Japan one and Ireland two.

Oak Ridge Institute again during this year won state championship in football, baseball and track athletics, outside of the State University, a position she has held almost continually for twenty years. Next term will begin August 22nd.

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. Phippin, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by C. E. Holton.

From a gentleman who came in from Winston this morning, we learn that work was begun yesterday on the improvement of Piedmont Park, where the big Horse Show will be given next fall. Our sister city is preparing for a rousing time.

Mr. C. E. Moore has accepted a position as travelling salesman with the Somerville Woolen Mills, Somerville, Mass. He expects to receive his samples and go on the road in a few days. Mr. Moore is an energetic and popular young man and we wish him success in his new position.

SUICIDE LAST EVENING.

Will J. Carr Ends a Two Months' Drunk in Death.

Out of employment, despondent and crazed by intemperance, Will J. Carr, whose home is on Smith street, near Summit avenue, ended a tired existence last night by sending a bullet into his brain. About 7:30 o'clock he went into a room, stretched himself on a bed and with a .32 calibre rifle shot himself in the centre of the forehead. His wife heard the shot and from what he had said only a few minutes before, knew what had happened. Physicians were immediately summoned but it was soon seen that the attempt at suicide had been successful. Carr lived until 9 o'clock but never regained consciousness.

The dead man was about 45 years old. He leaves a wife and five children. He was at one time employed on the section force of the Southern railway but began drinking and lost that position several months ago. Since that time he had done little work and for two months has been continually under the influence of whiskey.

Mrs. Carr is said to be a most worthy woman. Since her husband has been out of employment she has supported the family and though intemperance had made the husband of little help, she is mortified at his action in taking his life.

Respectfully,

If sent to a maiden demure,
In eloquent language the message will say

"The flower you resemble is pure."
But "my kind of violets," the lover's bouquet,
Is choicer than flowers by far,
And that which appeals to my taste by the way
Is the fragrant Sweet Violet Cigar.
